

v2.0.0 Requirements

1. Add a favicon
2. Add a header
3. Separate styles into a stylesheet
4. Separate the template into a file
5. Create a directory called 'static' that holds the favicon and styles
6. Create a directory called 'tmpl' that holds the template
7. Add a file server that serves files from the static directory
8. Cache favicons
9. Update static directory and template directory for minor version changes automatically

v1.1.0 Requirements

1. Include a favicon if the website at the URL has one for each website in the directory
2. Include a copy-config script that accepts a remote host, user, and path to copy the config to
3. Include a deploy script that accepts a remote host, user, and working directory to start the website on

v1.0.0 Requirements

1. Should be a website that shows a configurable website directory
2. Each website in the directory should have a name and a link to the website.
3. Directory should come from a config file
4. Directory should be updatable by modifying the config file while the website is running
5. Website should be as easy as possible to install and run