

Requirements

1. Should be a website that shows a configurable website directory
2. Each website in the directory should have a name and thumbnail
3. Directory should come from a config file
4. Directory should be updatable by modifying the config file while the website is running
5. Website should be as easy as possible to install and run