v1.0.0 Requirements

1. Should be a website that shows a configurable website directory
2. Each website in the directory should have a name and a link to the website.
3. Directory should come from a config file
4. Directory should be updatable by modifying the config file while the website is running
5. Website should be as easy as possible to install and run

v1.1.0 Requirements

1. Link to a favicon if the website at the URL has one
2. Include a copy-config script that accepts a remote host and path to copy the config to
3. Include a deploy script that accepts a remote host, working-directory, and port to start the website on